

CHILI COOKOFF RULES

A "team" may consist of an individual or a group.

The team may cook the chili in the morning at work or at home the night before.

Each team entry will receive 2 lbs. of chili ground meat the evening before the cook off.

All ingredients (other than the meat) are to be supplied by the team.
All ingredients are allowed.

No open flame burners allowed in the competition. Only crock pots or electric hot plates are allowed. Each team is responsible for cooking utensils and clean up.

Entries should be brought to the HR Office at 11:15 a.m. on Wednesday, November 15. You will be given a number which identifies your entry, and the winning numbers will be announced shortly after judging is complete.

Chili will be judged on appearance, aroma, and taste.

PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED AS FOLLOWS:
